IN THE THEATRES

JACKSON'S

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"

A play full of human interest and at the same time just bubbling over with quaint humor, laughable situations and comedy types of characters that have made the whole world laugh is "Ten Nights in a Barroom" at Jackson's this evening. The play is true to life, sentiment, laughter, simplicity and sympathy embody a part of the many great features in "Ten Nights in a Barroom."

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD"

"The Old Homestead," Denman Thompson's famous play receives its annual presentation at Jackson's tomorrow with a special bargain Election day matinee. The play is now in the twenty-fourth year of its existence. "The Old Homestead" is a play that pleases all classes. When ministers of the gospel urge their congregations to attend a theatrical performance and preach its moral from the pulpit, it follows necessarily that the play itself is far above the average in point of merit, wholesomeness, purity and truth. Yet we are told, that is precisely what the ministers of the gospel have been doing and are doing in the case of "The Old Homestead." Not a night passes, we are assured, when the company is on tour, that clergymen of all denominations, Protestant and Catholic, are not present, interested and auditors of this grand old New England idyll.

"EAST LYNNE"

"East Lynne" the greatest story ever woven about a woman's wrongs, the favorite dramatic vehicle in the past of many famous actors and actresses and one of the most powerful plays in the theatrical field today, will be given a notably artistic presentation by Joseph King's company at Jackson's next Wednesday matinee and evening at popular prices.

"HIS NAME ON THE DOOR"

Judging from the accounts which have come from Springfield, Hartford and New Haven of Lawrence Mulligan's production of "His Name on the Door," local playgoers will have one of the dramatic treats of the season when Mr. Frank Lord's play will have its initial appearance here at Jackson's next Thursday evening. The piece is a comedy in three acts dealing with New York of today and the vital question of whether a rising young lawyer should take the "big end, or the right side of a case." The play will be repeated on Friday. Seats for both evenings can now be secured.

LETTER CARRIERS' BALL

One of the most auspicious events in local circles will be the ball to be given at Eagles' Hall, Nov. 5, by the Ladies' Auxiliary for the benefit of the Letter Carriers' Sick Benefit Fund. Already the demand for tickets has thus far exceeded even the most sanguine anticipations of the promoters. If you would be assured of securing a ticket of admission apply to your carrier. There will be among the invited guests at the ball some distinguished members of the local department at Washington and this city. The committee has named the following floor committee for the occasion: L. S. Jackson, F. V. Gihuley, William C. Dietrich, George Raymond, Harry McCabe, Andrew Hoag, Lawrence Sullivan, Thomas F. Finn, Eugene Kelly, William Gerrity, Thomas Keating, Frederick Finn, Arthur Barratt, Joseph Barratt, Edward Kimmerrlin, Ira Stenberg.

Auto Hurlled Over 40 Foot Embankment

(Special from United Press.)—Frattriboro, Vt., Nov. 1.—An automobile was hurled over a 40 foot embankment near here when their car became unmanageable. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Brown of 77 Front street and Miss King of Brooklyn, N. Y., today are in this city under the care of physicians. Mrs. Brown's arm was broken and her husband and Miss King were very badly bruised. The touring car driven by Mr. Brown lost a nut on the steering gear and in rounding a sharp turn in the road plunged over the hillside, scattering its occupants over the rocks. The car was a total wreck.

Sergeant Philip Blansfield, who has been on his vacation will be on the street, to-night. Sergeant Frederick Webb will resume his duties behind the desk this afternoon.

One Pill

Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills, gently laxative, all legitimate. He knows why they act directly on the liver.

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. Waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one pill at bedtime. All vegetable.

GOVERNOR HUGHES TO CONTROL STATE

Death of Comptroller Gaus Forces Him to Become Party Leader, His Friends Say.

New York, Nov. 1.—Governor Hughes is to-day in a position to secure control of the New York State Republican organization and to have at his back the next Republican National Convention. The death of Comptroller Gaus, who died yesterday in his Canadian hunting camp, has been able to take over the state leadership. If he will name a politician to succeed Charles H. Gaus, state comptroller, who died yesterday in his Canadian hunting camp, Hughes will control nearly all of the real patronage in the state and through this patronage he can get the machine. Inasmuch as it is admitted President Taft's advocacy of Senator Aldrich on his westward trip has stirred up real opposition to the President in the middle west, several of the state delegations from there are likely to be anti-Taft. Hughes' friends assert that now he must act and take the machine as there is a renewal of talk that former President Roosevelt is likely one of these days to indicate that he wants to become a candidate. And the comptroller's office patronage is fully as good as that of governor. Through it anti-Hughes leaders have kept their organizations in line.

It will also give Hughes control of the state legislature and will mean that the legislature which meets in January will have to pass a direct primaries bill acceptable to the Governor. The death of Gaus, friends of Hughes insist to-day, means that Hughes must become the party leader in the state, that he must wipe out the old leaders who opposed him and that his favorite weapon—patronage—and that he must take position as a reform Republican and clean up the state legislature.

YALE ACTORS GO SOUTH

Itinerary Includes Bridgeport in Ten Cities for Christmas Trip.

For the first time since its inception the Yale University Dramatic association will make a trip through the south during the coming Christmas recess from college duties. Baltimore and Washington are the two cities selected and the large number of Yale alumni located in these sections make it certain that the Yale actors will have the best kind of backing for their debut. In addition the other New England cities where the Yale actors have previously been featured will be visited.

The complete itinerary as officially announced is as follows: December 27, Meriden, December 27, Washington, December 28, Baltimore, December 29, Orange, N. J., December 30, Bridgeport, December 31, Worcester, January 1, Hartford, January 2 and 3, Waldorf-Astoria, New York city.

CITY BRIEFS

Attorney Charles S. Canfield of this city has been appointed the committee to conduct the Atlantic street sidewalk appeals in Stamford. The hearings will begin in the course of week or two. The total cost of the Atlantic street widening cannot be determined until these appeals are settled and all bills paid. It is expected that the total will fall far short of $100,000. The original estimate upon which the special tax was laid was a trifle over $25,000.

The American & British Manufacturing Co., has been constructing a wireless station at its plant. It is of the DeForest system. It will be finished in two weeks. This station will be only one link in the chain of like stations erected along the Atlantic seaboard from Florida to New England. The station will be particularly useful to the American & British Co., in that it may be more quickly communicated with the other plant in Providence and with the Washington Navy Yard. President G. E. Hoagland visited the plant Saturday and inspected the new station. The following surgeons in Fairfield County have been appointed examining surgeons by the adjutant general at Hartford to determine those who are exempt from duty in case of war: Frederick J. Adams, Bridgeport, David M. Treacartin, Bridgeport, Frank W. Stevens, Bridgeport, Laurence M. Allen, South Norwalk, Wilbur S. Watson, Danbury, Charles R. Hart, Bethel, Frederick Schavoor, Stamford, William L. Griswold, Greenwich, S. W. Sherwood, Wilton, Ernest H. Smith, Redding, C. B. Keeler, New Canaan.

NEW B. & M. TALK

New Haven Road Acquiring Stock to Give Control to Holding Co.

The Boston News Bureau notes that "some undisclosed interest" has been buying considerable amounts of Boston & Maine stock at between $154 and $155 per share and says that it is understood that the purchaser is the New Haven & Hartford railroad, which will turn the stock thus acquired over to the Boston Holding Company at a price to be agreed upon later. The object is to give to the Holding Company an actual 51 per cent. control of Boston & Maine stock. At present the Holding Company owns $13,155,000, or 41.8 per cent. of the $31,421,000 Boston & Maine preferred and common outstanding. To secure 51 per cent. control the stockholders would require the acquisition of $2,265,810 more stock, or 25,688 shares.

It is believed that the New Haven road will raise the rate of dividend of the B. & M. at 6 per cent.

MAY LET DOWN BARS AT YALE

It is stated semi-officially that the Sheffield Scientific School, the second largest department of Yale University, favors the abrogation of the rule which compels a candidate for admission to pass his preliminary examination in at least five subjects or otherwise repeat his work. The change which is of the highest importance for the candidates and for the preparatory schools and colleges is in the academic department and in both departments the change of the rule is looked for before long.

The movement for abolishing the rule has been immediately due to the returns from the entrance examinations for the two departments held last June and the results show that in the academic branch no less than 44 per cent. of the preliminary candidates failed to receive preliminary admission and that in the preparatory branch, the academic department, but a similar movement is actively in progress in the academic department and in both departments the change of the rule is looked for before long.

Sir Thomas Lipton Visits Greenwich

Greenwich, Nov. 1.—Sir Thomas Lipton was a guest here yesterday at the country residence of John H. Flagler, on North street. He was accompanied by Col. N. and Lady Smith. Mrs. Flagler's sister was also a guest at the place. Part of the day was taken up in automobile driving. Sir Thomas said that the town reminded him of English country places more than it resembled other American towns which he had visited.

The English yachtman arrived Saturday afternoon and departed last evening. At the Greenwich station he was met by the Youngs Bay excursion line in Scotland of forty years ago, now a Greenwich contractor. During his stay a dinner was given in his honor that was attended by many New Yorkers who have Greenwich country places here.
